Residential Care

Residential Aged Care for everyone

A community where care comes first

We understand that moving into residential aged care is a significant life transition. Our residences are more than places to live, they are homes where you can feel safe, respected, valued and supported to live life your way.

We encourage residents to remain active, connected and engaged in the things that bring meaning and happiness. Whether it’s pursuing a favourite hobby, maintaining important relationships, exploring new interests or enjoying regular outings and social activities, we support you to continue living a fulfilling life.

Our services are open to everyone. We welcome people of all backgrounds, cultures, beliefs and abilities, providing compassionate care tailored to each individual’s needs. No matter who you are, you’ll find a warm welcome and a caring community at Catholic Homes.
